Political Announcements.

For President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 51st Judicial District. DONALD P. McPHERSON, Gettysburg. Subject to the Non-Partisan Primary.

In announcing my candidacy for President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 51st Judicial District, I wish to thank my friends who, without regard to Party, have so gen erously expressed their approval of it and to assure every voter of Adams and Fulton Countles that I shall appreciate his suffrage and support.

The Judgeship is now non-partisan -made so specifically by Act of Assembly-and if nominated and elected to that high office it will be my endeavor to observe the spirit of that act der of the church. Blanche C. and to administer the duties of the office with fidelity and impartiality, to the end that the law may be enforced and justice done

DONALD P. McPHERSON. July 1, 1915.

J. L. BUTT, Gettysburg, Pa.

To the Voters of Adams and Fulton Countles:

In announcing my candidacy for the nomination for President Judge of the Fifty-first Judicial District I desire to state that I consented to become a candidate because of the number of members of the bar who urged me to do so and pledged me their support, and while I had the matter under consideration, assurance of support and approval came from voters all over the county and district urging the step, and confiding in these assurances, I consented. The office of President Judge is the highest honor in the gift of the people of this district and carries with it the gravest responsibilities. A Judge must not only know the law and be a student of the law, but must be without prejudice and bias in he administration of the law, the ights of the humblest citizen must be is sacredly maintained as those of he most exalted or of the great corporations. He must weigh all maters carefully so that only justice and righteousness is done. The non-partisan law aimed at the highest judicial ideal in the separation of the Bench rom polities and party organizations | place I pledge myself to the bighest ideals of justice and right in the discharge of every duty if nominated and elected to preside over the Courts of this district, and as an assurance of such pledge let the life I have lived in your midst speak for itself. 1 will highly appreciate all support.

Most respectfully yours, J. L. BUTT.

WILLIAM McSHERRY

of Adams County Pennsylvania. To the Electors of Adams and Fulton Countles:

GENTLEMEN: -As on the 21st of September next you will select your Candidate or Candidates for President Judge of this Judicial District, it is but fair that you should know who are mentioned for this position. My name will be among those presented for your consideration. Under the Nonpartisan Act Candidates for Judge do not state their political party. I will be in fact as well as in name a nonpartisan Candidate for President Judge, and I will use only honorable and legal means to secure my nomination and election. If I am nominated and elected, I will discharge the duties of my office honestly and promptly, justly and faithfully, without fear or favor to the best of my learning and ability.

Thanking you for your vote and influence, 1 am

Very truly your fellow citizen, WILLIAM MOSHERRY. Residence:-Germany Township. Post Office: Gettysburg, Adams County, Pennsylvania. August 24, 1915.

VOTE FOR McSHERRY.

Some Reasons Why William McSherry Should be Nominated for Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 51st Judicial District.

Because he has had a longer experience and been concerned in more important cases, and devoted his attention more exclusively to the practice of his profession than either of the other two gentlemen who are his opponents for the judicial nomination.

He is not a politician and has no political friends to reward or enemies to punish. He has no entanglements to embarrass him or litigants in the trial of cases. He has a better command of speech and a better faculty of presenting the law and facts of a case clearly and fairly to the jury than either of his opponents. He has no interests or associations that will prevent him from presiding with impartiality and justice over the courts. He possesses in a larger degree, than either of the other two candidates, a good memory, a quick perception and has less outside matters to distract his attention from the duties of the office, He has a natural fondness for study, has been highly educated, and is entirely devoted to his profession. He "knows the law and will be governed by it." He has proved by his professional career that he possesses industry, probity and ability. "He will do his duty unawed by fear and unbribed by the hope of reward." He will know neither rich nor poor, but only law and justice. He will act Members of Pleasant Grove not make law but decide what the law is. He "will know neither of the United States at least one Christian church will meet at 2 friend nor foe but will do justice between man and man." "He o'clock p. m., October 2, 1915, will be diligent, of studious habits, engross not in countless outside for a roll call meeting for the personal interests, but in the consideration of legal principles and purpose of revising the church legal questions." He has the judicial temperament which patientrecords. All members are re- ly hears both sides before reaching a decision and the legal learnquested to be present, or if im- ing and proper mental equipment to decide justly. He has been possible to be present, to corres- prompt and careful in the preparation of his legal cases and will show the same promptness and care and legal learning in his official decisions. Because of his fairness in all his dealings with his fellow men and of his integrity and truthfulness we know that he will give every one a fair hearing and an impartial judgment. The people of the district know him to be an able and honest lawyer and honorable in his profession. Because "his fine legal attainments, his many personal virtues, his detestation of crooked politics, his clean and honorable record as a man and lawyer all commend him." Because "he is the choice of the people and the wish of the people must not be disregarded. He is a strong man, an ideal character for the bench. Studious, enlightened, animated always by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives, and enjoys the prestige of honorable achievement by pure motives. and established merit. No other candidate is as well qualified for the office. No other could better discharge its duties for the advantage of the people." Because if nominated he will be elected. Because since 1904, when he was a candidate for judge under the old delegate system, he has been looking forward to a nomination at this time and by diligent study prepared himself for the duties of a judgeship. Because as has been well said of him, "he possesses many of the qualities for the judicial office among them, strict honesty, integrity, patience, moral courage to do what is right because it is right, legal ability and broad knowledge of men and their needs." He will see to it as President Judge that the business of the courts will be promptly attended to; that the county and litigants will not be put to unnecessary expense nor parties delayed in the trial of their cause. Because he did not unduly seek the nomination by announcing his candidacy long before a due regard for the office required it. Under the Primary Law he could not legally have secured signatures to his petition for nomination prior to June 24th, 1915, and there would have been no legal advantage in his formally announcing his candidacy prior to that time. He has been considered No. 1. as a candidate by the general public since 1904, and each day the Mrs. Jacob Sheffleld, near this wish of the people to have him for judge of this district has been increasing. He proceeded strictly according to law in making his announcement and filed the petition for his name to be placed on the official ballot within the time prescribed by law, on the 24th of August. It was only after many voters of the district, irrespective of party, expressed in many ways their desire that he become a candidate, that Mr. McSherry formally announced that he would serve, if nominated and elected, as President Judge of this district. Since that time he has, in a dignified honorable way, proceeded with his canvass. If the people select him as one of the nominees for the judgeship, he will use every fair and lawful means to secure his election against every and all other competitors. He has always taken the position that the judgeship should not be unduly sought, nor, unless for good reasons, declined if offered. That no they're fixin' to pull off a holdup for a higher honor could come to him than to be called by the voters of his fellow citizens to preside as President Judge over the courts of this judicial district, and that if nominated, he will gladly accept the nomination and use every honorable and legal means to secure his election, and that if elected, he will discharge the duties of his office with fidelity. Because the people want a non-partisan and ust judge. Because he will meet the tests of a good judge:

To hear courteously. To answer wisely. To consider soberly.

To decide impartially. Mr. McSherry should be nominated and elected as judge of Adams and Fulton Counties because he will preside over the courts with dignity and impartiality, and because he is the most distinguished by his career in legal contests and by his legal equipment of all the judicial candidates, and his past professional career gives promise for the best service to all the people. - Pol.
